Mr. Johnson:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2015-000135), dated November 11, 2014, in which you requested presentations, pitches, and negotiations regarding leasing and/or sale of commercial real estate space to the City of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) does not have any active transactions involving the City of Minneapolis and, therefore, has no documents that meet the context of your request.

This does not constitute a denial, but you can appeal the adequacy of GSA's search under FOIA. To do so, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to:

U.S. General Services Administration
Freedom of Information Act Requester Service Center
1800 F Street, Northwest, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405-0001

Your appeal must be in writing and should contain a brief statement of the reasons why you believe the requested information should be released. Enclose a copy of your initial request and a copy of this letter. Both the appeal letter and envelope should be marked prominently "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

This completes our action on this request. Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact Mike Mitchell, Great Lakes Regional FOIA Officer, at mike.mitchell@gsa.gov.

Sincerely,

Travis Lewis
